PLAGIARISM/REFERENCING

Plagiarism is copying someone else's words or ideas and presenting them as your own.
All academic reports, essays, and/or assignments MUST contain references.
Referencing guards against plagiarism, which is considered as a serious academic offence.
Referencing is a standard system that is designed to inform the reader of resources of information used in a piece of written work.
There are many Referencing styles among them Harvard Style which is based on an author-date system.
Example of Harvard reference list entry:
